Local Church News

The all-day missionary meeting held in the Methodist church on Monday was the most enjoyable and interesting church affair of the season. The June program was substituted for that of May meeting making the discussion include the topic "The Negro in the New Working World." The Social Service Superintendent, Mrs. D. B. Phelps had the program well in hand.

An hour in the foremoon was given to the transaction of regular business and presentation and discussion

Mr. Geo. Wilson and Mr. Millard
Nichols, of Evansville, were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Wilson's daughter, Mrs. Edward Nichols.

Of the Mrs. A bountiful and tastering and luncheon was served at the noon bour. Seated at the head and foot of the table were two active charter members of the society, Mrs. A R. Fisher and Mrs. Cornelia W. Fraize.

These ladies joined when Miss Mary forty years ago.

In the afternoon the mission study class presented the book studied the past quarter, "Christian Americanization," each member giving her chapter in her own style and manner. Folk songs and hymns were interspersed by different members, and two of these were given by members of the choir of the Colored Methodist

A reading, "The Crucified" by Miss Tula Babbage and a dialogue by Miss Margaret Burn and Mrs. E. M. Wedding on "Our Work With the Negro' were much enjoyed. Three or four new members were added to the roll Mrs. R. B. Pierce, another charter member, sang one of her girlhood songs. Mr. Oscar Holder rendered some valuable service in making the women comfortable and also sent a treat of some candy at the close of

BEWLEYVILLE WOMEN GIVE A SEWING FOR BAPTIST ORPHANS.

Bewleyville, May 10. (Special)-The laides of the Baptist church here after donating eggs purchased gingham and met at the home of Mrs. R. P. Car-man, Tuesday where they made nine-teen little garments for the little or-phans at Glendale orphans home.

The culture of the child, I fear, Is really most complex; Just how to practice all I hear And still not bore the little dear Would any mother vex!

The ideal food, says Dr. Twit, Is half a marrow bone; Some parsnips and an apple-pit Will also keep the baby fit— Will give him vim and tone.

The child's advancement must be slow Until it reaches eight; "He must not read," "She must not

For if they do their legs will bow. Their hair will come in straight.

New Triplex Springs Help Overland 4 Break Record

In the great endurance test recently at Indianapolis an Overland 4 stock car covered an average of more than 778 miles each day for 7 days. The success of this severe test is another proof of the quality of material in the Overland 4, and the protection afforded the chassis by the Triplex Springs.
